GLASGOW DRUG DEALER PLEADS GUILTY TO FEDERAL NARCOTICS CHARGES

– Admits to dealing crack cocaine

BOWLING GREEN, KY - Jamie Lynn Brown, age 25, of 617 East Main Street, Glasgow, in Barren County, plead guilty to distributing crack cocaine, David L. Huber, United States Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky, and Paul Vido, Special Agent in Charge of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF), Louisville Field Division, jointly announced today.

Brown admitted that on September 14, 2007, he sold 5.723 grams of cocaine base, which is commonly known as “crack” cocaine, to a confidential informant. Brown also admitted to possessing an additional 2.733 grams of crack cocaine at his residence on the same. The total street value of the drugs involved is approximately $800. Brown has two prior felony convictions including second degree unlawful transaction with a minor and trafficking in a controlled substance within 1000 yards of a school.

U.S. Attorney Huber praised the Barren/Edmonson County Drug Task Force for working with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives and taking this drug dealer out of local circulation for some time.

The maximum potential penalties are life imprisonment, a $4,000,000 fine, and supervised release for a period of life; and the minimum potential penalties are five years imprisonment and supervised release for a period of four years.

The case was prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney Rob Bonar. The Bowling Green Field Office of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) conducted the investigation in partnership with the Barren/Edmonson County Drug Task Force, as part of ATF's mandated mission to reduce violent crime and other threats to public safety.

The plea was entered before Thomas Russell, Judge, United States District Court, Bowling Green, Kentucky.

Brown is scheduled to be sentenced before the Honorable Thomas Russell, Judge, United States District Court, on October 6, 2008, at 11:30 a.m., in Bowling Green, Kentucky.
